

Stanton Summer Winds Down

The last of the outdoor Stanton Trophy competitions for 2014 is now complete after conclusion of the tennis tournament. The competition unfortunately suffered from forfeit fever, with an unusually high number of walkovers, but there were still plenty of nail-biting fixtures played over the slightly chilly but dry(ish) month of October.

	Played	Won	Lost	Games Won
ASD/IR	4	3	1	26
TQEEM	4	3	1	24
LGC	4	3	1	13
Mat/Ac	4	1	3	-15
N/Ads	4	0	4	-48

A three-way tie at the top of the table means first place is determined by games difference, so ASD/IR emerge triumphant by a narrow margin, with TQEEM following in second place and LGC in third. Mat/Ac finish fourth after taking the points from N/Ads, who were unable to field a team this season.

Congratulations to ASD/IR and thanks to all who took part!

The next event in the Stanton Trophy will be the quiz, which is due to take place at the NPL Sports Club Pavilion on the evening of Wednesday 3 December. This year the quiz is vaguely games-themed, so put the date in your calendar and start swotting up! Look out for further details to be released nearer the time, or contact your team rep if you are interested in participating.

Berlin Marathon 2014

On Sunday 28 September, I completed the 41th BMW Berlin Marathon in 3:16:46.

This was an improvement on my personal best set in Rome last year of 22 mins.

On the same day, on the same course, a world record was established at 2:02:57.
